City + County Partners

A Turn-Key, High Impact Campaign to bring Connection to your Community

As a Partner, you simply promote 150 Tables Across Colorado to your residents, companies and organizations - inviting their participation in a statewide movement, while making sustained local impact.

We make it easy for you with our fully built, ready-to-launch campaign—often less than the cost of a single small community event, yet capable of activating 10–30+ tables and engaging residents across your community.

What This Makes Possible for Your Community

- Strengthen neighborhood connection across differences, backgrounds, and generations
- Foster belonging and civic pride in a meaningful, visible way
- Empower residents and organizations to lead and host their own gatherings
- Break down silos between sectors, cultures, and communities
- Participate in a statewide movement that reflects the best of Colorado

What You Receive

- Ready-to-use promo (emails, social, press, graphics for your website)
- A proven model and planning guides for individuals and organizations to set their own tables
- Co-branded assets to align with your city/county identity
- Access to a growing statewide network of organizers and partners

How it Works

1

Become a City/County Partner ($500 one-time)

Join the campaign and align your city with the statewide movement.

2

Spread the Word Locally

Use our co-branded materials to invite residents, organizations, and businesses to set their own tables.

3

Empower Community-Led Tables

Individuals, neighborhoods, nonprofits, and companies host gatherings—large or small—throughout your community.

4

(Optional) Increase Access Through Small Grants

Some cities choose to cover or subsidize registration fees to ensure broad and equitable participation.

5

Set Your Own Civic Table

Host a city- or county-wide table—on Main Street, at a park, or in a civic space—to model what's possible and bring your community together in a visible way.
